

Jero Gonzales

Jero GONZALES

Born in 1982 in Urcos, Peru.
Lives and works in Urcos, Peru.

Graduated of the photographic school Centro de la Imagen (Lima), the artist undertakes personal projects related to landscape and Quechua portrait from the Cusco Valley.

His photographic creation focuses on a deep interest in nature and the Quechua language. His work is part of important collections such as Jan Mulder Collection, FOLA - Fototeca Latinoamericana, among other private collections.